If there are any physical ailments with the student, please list: _____

All students will be required to bring and wear masks in CCAI. Please bring your own bottled water. If you believe you may be sick or exposed to the COVID-19, please see a doctor before coming back to CCAI. Right now there are many different and confusing directions coming from the gov't. There is also insurance issues to deal with. We want to make this fun and relaxing for the students.

Tuition: Fall Semester runs from Sept 6th to Dec 15th, 2022. Tuition is due prior to the start of the semester. Tuition received late will be charged a $30 late fee. A further late charge of $50 will be assessed after Sept 30th. *Please communicate any special circumstances in relation to tuition payments.

Tuition is non-refundable. There will be a $35 fee for all returned checks.

When there are opportunities for guest teachers to teach master classes, additional fees may apply.

Liability Release:

I understand that dance and technique training involves intense physical conditioning, and carries with it the risk of injury. With the understanding that the Chinese Cultural & Arts Institute (CCAI) and our instructors will take appropriate measures to prevent injuries. I am willing to accept the risk of accidental injury and agree not to hold the Chinese Cultural & Arts Institute and/or its instructors and staff responsible in the event of accidental injury while my child or myself is attending class or participating in any activities related to the Chinese Cultural & Arts Institute. I will not hold CCAI liable for any accidental injury to my enrolled student or any family member while in or outside of CCAI's premises or any facility that CCAI is using, performing in, renting, or occupying. I am aware that I am responsible for the safety and well being of my child before and after scheduled classes.
